When Buying Fuel

The consumer must always figure on the actual amount of heat and comfort that is got ten for the money spent.

We believe that our connections of long standing, coupled with the large amount of fuel that we buy, make it possible for us to sell the very highest grades of Coal and Wood at prices that are cheapest to the consumer. A trial order of our Coal and Wood, or an opinion from some of our satisfied customers, will prove that our idea of putting quality first is correct.

Drawing Inferences.
President Lincoln once told the following story to D. H. Bates, manager of the war department telegraph office: "I'm like an old colored man I knew. He spent so much of his time preaching to the other slaves it kept him and them from their labors. His master told him he would punish him the next time he was caught preaching."
"But, marse," said the old man, with tears in his eyes, "I always has to draw inferences from little texts when de comes in an bad. I jes' can't help it. Can you, marse?"
"Well," said his master, "I suspect I do sometimes draw inferences. But there is one text I never could understand, and if you can draw the right inference from it, I'll let you preach to your heart's content."
"What is de text, marse?" asked the colored man.
"The ass smuffeth up the east wind." Now, what inference do you draw from that?"
"Well, marse, I's neber heard dat text befo' now, but I 'spects de inference am she got to snuff a long time befo' she get fat."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Saves Trouble.
"After all, it is an advantage to have a sophisticated husband."
"Is what way?"
"Well, it isn't necessary to waste time hunting through his pockets at night."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Hopeful.
Miss Oldgirl—Now, what do you think of the theory that Methuselah was really not as old as report said he was? Mr. Frank—I think it is very encouraging, Miss Oldgirl.—Baltimore American.

Gout Defined.
"What is gout?" asks a correspondent. Well, it is an indication of inheritance, but is often a source of pride when acquired.—St. Paul Pioneer Press

The Camel.
Why is a camel easily angered? Because it always has its back up.

Distant Neptune.
The period of man's whole life is not sufficient for an express train to traverse half the distance to Neptune from the earth. Thought weariness and falls in seeking to grasp such distances. It can scarcely comprehend 1,000,000 miles, and here are thousands of them. When we stand on that outermost of the planets, the very last sentinel of the outskirts of the King, the very sun grows dim and small in the distance.

What He Had Done.
"I'd be ashamed to beg if I was a big, healthy looking man like you," said the sarcastic woman. "You ought to look for a job of some kind. Have you done anything at all during the past year?"
"Yes, ma'am, I hev," answered the husky tobo weekly. "I jist finished lookin' thirty days, ma'am."—Chicago News.

Character Sketch.
"You say he served four years in a reformatory institution?"
"Yes, and it made a man of him."
"I don't notice any evidence of it."
"It did, just the same. He was seventeen when he went in and twenty-one when he came out."—Chicago Tribune.

Studies in Still Life.
"I want a few colored illustrations of beets and tomatoes."
"Life size?" inquired the artist.
"Catalogue size," replied the seedsman, with a significant smile.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The One Time.
"You women would rather talk than listen."
"Not always."
"When, for example?"
"When a man is about to propose."—Judge.

When a Man's Fifty.
After a man reaches fifty "all goes out and nothing coming in" describes the condition of his teeth, his affections and his hair.—Atchison Globe.

Gift to the Ugly Man.
The practice of making such gifts appears to have arisen in America and is nearly obsolete. It therefore seems to deserve a note. It goes back to Harvard college (now Harvard University) beyond 1794. In that year William Biglow was the recipient of the jackknife. In 1795 he handed it on to Charles Prentiss, with these lines:
Item: C. P. has my knife.
During his natural college life.
That knife which ugliness inherits
And due to his superior merit,
And when from Harvard he shall steer
I order him to leave it here
That it may from class to class descend
Till time and ugliness shall end.
—Notes and Queries.

Meaning of Cemetery.
It is not correct to say that "cemetery" means the "city of the dead." The word is from the Greek "koinoteron," meaning sleeping place, not the place of the dead. There is nothing in the etymology of the word to warrant us in thinking that it was originally intended to convey the idea that the departed were really dead any more than there is in the old Hebrew term for cemetery, "bet ha-met," the house of the living.—Exchange.

Their Advantages.
Bobbs—This music is a charity affair for the benefit of the poor. Slobbs—I don't see just where the poor come in. Bobbs—Well, they don't have to be present.—Philadelphia Record.

A Guess at It.
Teacher of class in grammar:—What do you understand by "parts of speech?" Tommy—It's—It's when a man stutters.—Chicago Tribune.

A Soft Place.
First Artist—Reduced to a draught for a pillow, old chap? Second Artist—Idiot! Can't you see it's filled with straw?—The Evening

The Famous Rayo

Does Not Strain the Eyes

Don't use a small, concentrated light over one shoulder. It puts an unequal strain on your eyes. Use a diffused, soft, mellow light that cannot flicker, that equalizes the work of the eyes, such as the Rayo Lamp gives, and avoid eye strain.
The Rayo is designed to give the best light, and it does.

It has a strong, durable shade-holder that is held firm and true. A new burner gives added strength. Made of solid brass and finished in nickel. Easy to keep polished. The Rayo is low priced, but no other lamp gives a better light at any price.

Failed in Health

"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong; and this, with the shock of her death, was too much for me."
"I failed in health. I was tired all the time and did not want to go anywhere, nor care for company. I had the headache all the time and such bearing-down pains. A very dear friend advised me to take Cardui, as it had done her so much good, so I commenced to use it and now I am in good health."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Women's pains are relieved or prevented and women's strength is quickly restored, by Cardui, the woman's tonic. You yourself know best if you need it, or not. If you do need it, do not delay, but commence to use it at once. Every day of delay, only lets you slide further down the hill.
Don't wait, then, but begin to take Cardui today, for its use, no matter how prolonged, cannot harm you and will surely do you good.
